

The New Leviathans

THOUGHTS AFTER LIBERALISM

JOHN GRAY

PICADOR

FARRAR, STRAUS AND GIROUX

NEW YORK

BIBLIOTECA DO SENADO FEDERAL

Contents

I. THE RETURN OF LEVIATHAN

3

An epitaph for liberalism – a poor worm – seven types of absurdity – where the wind blows – Russia's Orthodox Leviathan – the Chinese Panopticon – the passing of the Anthropocene

2. ARTIFICIAL STATES OF NATURE

56

Portrait of an anti-liberal – the curtain comes down – words and demons – dystrophy and coal-black bread – a fatal butterfly net – almost nothing – silver shoes and a coat with a bullet hole – the first dystopia – Bukharin's confession and fear of the dark

3. MORTAL GODS

III

Woke religion and surplus elites – God-building liberals – warring rights – feudalism and fentanyl – the mythos of Cthulhu – destruction as the cause of coming into being – negative theology, negative anthropology – an old casino

Notes

I63

Acknowledgements

I8I