

Understanding Human Information Behavior

WHEN, HOW, AND WHY PEOPLE INTERACT WITH INFORMATION

Beth St. Jean
Ursula Gorham
Elizabeth Bonsignore

ROWMAN & LITTLEFIELD
Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

|                                                                                                                                     |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| List of Figures and Tables                                                                                                          | ix         |
| List of Acronyms                                                                                                                    | xi         |
| Preface                                                                                                                             | xiii       |
| Acknowledgments                                                                                                                     | xxi        |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 1 Introduction to Information Behavior                                                                               | 1   |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 2 Fundamental Concepts                                                                                               | 9   |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 3 Historical Development of the Field                                                                                | 20  |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 4 Related Concepts                                                                                                   | 29  |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 5 Information Literacy                                                                                               | 50  |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 6 Digital Divide and Digital Inclusion                                                                               | 73  |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 7 Finding, Reading, and Critiquing Information Behavior Studies                                                      | 83  |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 8 Research Methods                                                                                                   | 111 |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 9 Assessing User Information-Related Preferences and Information Needs                                               | 135 |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 10 Investigating User Information Behavior                                                                           | 148 |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 11 Connecting Information Behavior and Human-Computer Interaction:User Experience, Accessibility, and Usability | 164 |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 12 Information Behavior Models and Theories                                                                          | 181 |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 13 Consumer Health Information Behavior and Health Justice                                                           | 205 |
|                                                                                                                                 |            |
| Chapter 14 Youth Information Behavior                                                                                        | 219 |

|                                                                                                      |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 15 Legal Information Behavior and Access to Justice                                   | 240 |
| Chapter 16 Information Behavior in Libraries                                                  | 251 |
| Chapter 17 The Information-Related Professions: The Underlying Thread of Information Behavior | 261 |
| Glossary                                                                                             | 277 |
| Index                                                                                                | 293 |
| About the Authors                                                                                    | 305 |